Speaking & Editing for UC Berkeley Students, Post-docs and Visiting Scholars

People who have already studied English for academic purposes may still need practice in idiomatic spoken English. In this course – designed for UC Berkeley visiting scholars, international students, and their spouses – participants improve their pronunciation, editing skills and knowledge of American idioms and culture. Through highly effective instruction, students learn the rhythm of American English for more fluent communication. Classes are located on the 4th floor MLK Student Union Building (also known as ASUC) at Bancroft and Telegraph on the UCB campus.

10 class meetings on Wednesdays from 5:30 – 7:30 pm

February 17 – April 28, 2010 (no class March 24) - $395.00
